Our impact in Washington starts with direct engagement in local communities:

Morgan Stanley Supports Infrastructure Improvements in Washington

In August 2017, Morgan Stanley helped the Seattle-Tacoma International Airport raise $671 million to build a new international arrivals facility for the airport's growing international passenger base. Such investments in U.S. infrastructure are critical to creating more jobs and keeping communities safe. Learn more

JPMorgan Grant Creates Economic Opportunity for Minority-Owned Businesses

In 2018, JPMorgan Chase provided a $2.5 million grant to help expand a program that assists minority-owned businesses. Ascend 2020, a collaboration with the University of Washington's School of Business, links business schools and community development financial institutions to minority-owned businesses. The expansion formalizes business education, consulting services and partnerships with institutions. Learn more
