Our impact in Florida starts with direct engagement in local communities:

Wells Fargo Supports Florida Nonprofits

In 2018, Wells Fargo donated $19.1 million through 1,200 grants to local nonprofits, schools and community organizations throughout the state of Florida. When combined with the $1.8 million donated by the company’s Florida team members, nonprofits in the state received nearly $21 million from Wells Fargo and its team members. Learn more

JPMorgan Works to Solve Challenges Caused by Extreme Weather

JPMorgan Chase has invested in a number of programs in South Florida working on challenges caused by extreme weather, including efforts of the University of Florida, Enterprise Community Partners, and National Low-Income Housing Coalition to study how disasters may affect low- and moderate-income households. The partners are building a public database to identify the neighborhoods most at risk of impact from flooding, storms and rising sea levels. Learn more
