Our impact in New Hampshire starts with direct engagement in local communities:

Bank of America Aids Adult Literacy Program

In 2018 The Bank of America Charitable Foundation awarded a $12,500 grant to support the New Hampshire Humanities Connections adult literacy program based in Concord. The Connections program works to promote English language skills, a culture of reading, and family literacy for young adults to create a foundation for economic opportunity. Learn more

Goldman Sachs Supports New Hampshire Small Business

Goldman Sachs’ 10,000 Small Businesses initiative is a $500 million investment that operates in 16 U.S. locations, including New Hampshire. The initiative supports small businesses, job creation, and economic growth by giving entrepreneurs business education, support, and access to capital. Learn more
